

Climate Risk Tool (CRT) Workshop (82105)

How will climate change impact businesses and value chains? What steps should businesses take to prepare for climate change? To answer such pressing questions, BEC Climate Change Business Forum (CCBF) has developed an Excel-based tool that would help inform business decisions on climate risks and opportunities, as well as formulate appropriate adaptation actions. Companies interested in making use of the tool are welcomed to attend a workshop that will familiarise environmental and risk managers with the tool.

Topics To Be Covered

- How the Tool can be applied under different scenarios?
 - Framework for climate risk management
 - Getting started and identifying risks
 - Assessing and prioritizing risks
 - Developing and assessing adaptation options
 - Monitoring and reviewing actions
- How the Tool actually works?
 - Step-by-step to use the CRT
- How to formulate a corporate climate change adaptation plan?
 - Different potential risks of each sector (i.e. manufacturing, power generation, property & construction, transport, financial services)
 - Corresponding actions and management of these risks

Learning Outcomes

- Understand an overview of climate changes;
- Familiar with essential skills in climate risk management;
