

Mr. SK WU

Risk Manager, Alliance Construction Materials Limited

SK has worked in the construction materials industry, responsible for occupational health and safety management and environmental protection since 1998. He leads the risk management function for Alliance since its establishment in 2004. In addition to his HSE duties, he initiates to drive the corporate social responsibilities, sustainability and reporting within the organization and advocate good practices such as carbon footprint in the concrete and aggregate industries.

SK holds a Bachelor Degree in Business Admin, Master Degree in Safety & Health Management, and Master Degree in Environmental Science & Technology. He is also a Registered Safety Auditor and a Chartered Safety & Health Practitioner in IOSH.